

THE DEPARTMENTS OF SCANDINAVIAN & HISTORY
PRESENT

“The Child in Medieval Scandinavia Challenging the Ariès Thesis”

A Lecture by

Professor Emerita Eva Österberg (Lund University)
Respondent: Professor Emerita Paula Fass (History UCB)

Friday, March 16, 4-6 pm
3205 Dwinelle (the Sather Room)

Reception to follow in the ISSA Lounge on floor F (6321 Dwinelle Hall)

Eva Österberg is a scholar of the middle ages, and the early modern period, but her works also include the 19th and 20th centuries. She is particularly interested in Norbert Elias' concept of a civilizing process, Aron Gurevitj 's ideas about medieval mentality, Philippe Ariès on childhood, and William Reddy and Barbara Rosenwein on emotions. With questions, please contact issa@berkeley.edu